

Heavenly Father, I thank You that You are yearning to speak to me today—guiding me in spirit and in truth to obey Your Word and to live a joyful life. Thank You for calling me Your friend so I may approach you with confidence to find Your loving arms when I have a need in my life or to thank you for my many blessings.

Father, your word says that you will draw near to me when I draw near to you. Lord, I draw near to you today to seek your face, your truth, and your word for my life. Father, it is my desire to know you, obey you, and hear you more. Lord, your word also tells me that your sheep do not follow the voices of strangers. Give me discernment, Father, to know the difference between Your voice and the voice of those that will deceive me. Guard my heart from the evil influences of this world, Lord, and help me make decisions that are pleasing to you.

As I sit quietly today in your presence, seeking You Lord for discernment, guidance, knowledge, and correction, help me to recognize Your voice through Your Word. Heavenly Father, You said if I ask for wisdom, You will give it to me, so I am asking for wisdom in the Name of Jesus to hear You concisely and consistently today.

Give me the confidence, through your word, to know that it is Your voice I am hearing.

May all the glory and honor be Yours, Heavenly Father. In Jesus Name I pray.

Amen